From the Principals: Each week Mrs. Buckle and I make video announcements for the school that we send out on Monday morning. During that time we highlight student birthdays and important dates in history but also take time to remind students of some important things they can do to practice having a growth mindset, manage their emotions in healthy ways, and solve problems in a safe and calm manner. This month we have focused on the STEP process. S-T-E-P is a way to solve problems that include everyone involved and helps friends resolve conflicts when they come up. Here are the "steps" to STEP.

S: Say the problem. You should consider each person's point of view when addressing the problem.

T: Think of solutions. Make sure your solutions are safe and respectful. Try to think of more than one solution.

E: Explore the outcome. Think about what could happen when you use each solution.

P: Pick a solution. Choose the one that is safe and respectful of everyone's thoughts and feelings. You can always pick another one and try again!

This is helpful in the classroom and at recess. Give it a try at home and see if it helps when problems arise.

Have a wonderful weekend! ~Mrs. Borio

Nurse's Corner

Mrs. Strait is on the hunt for some fresh or gently used children's snow pants to conquer those winter wonderlands. If you have any outgrown gear stashed away, send them sliding over to the office and let's keep those little legs warm and dry! ❄️
Thanks for spreading the warmth!

SCHOOL YEARBOOK

Please upload your children's photos to this link all year long. The more photos, the more students the PTO are able to feature in the yearbook.
